Crossroads of the Adriatic with ETV Endowment of South Carolina

Stari Most bridge, Mostar

The ETV Endowment invites you on a transformative journey through the geographic and cultural heart of the Mediterranean, where the elegance of Central Europe meets the spirited Balkans. Once the seat of ancient Illyria, this region traces the historical fault lines of empires. From Venetian bell towers to Habsburg palaces, witness three distinct worlds converging along one of the most stunning coastlines on earth.

Begin your adventure in Dubrovnik, the “Pearl of the Adriatic,” where ancient walls embrace a vibrant seafaring history. Cross into Montenegro to explore the enchanting Bay of Kotor, a medieval treasure set against dramatic peaks. Then, unwind on Korčula, a storybook island famed for its picturesque lanes and ties to Marco Polo.

Head north to Mostar, where the iconic Stari Most (old bridge) unites East and West. Discover Split’s lively atmosphere within Diocletian’s Palace, then sail to Hvar, the sunniest Adriatic island, known for its lavender fields and Venetian charm.

Experience the natural beauty of Plitvice Lakes National Park, where turquoise waters and cascades offer a serene contrast to the historic coast.

Conclude in Opatija, the elegant “Old Dame” of the Adriatic. Stroll seaside promenades and enjoy the timeless grace of this Austrian Riviera before your journey’s grand Alpine finale.

Join us as we traverse these three culturally distinct regions with style: deluxe 5-star hotels, exquisite fine dining along with the authentic soul of local crafts and agritourism. Beyond the breathtaking scenery, you will enjoy expertly guided, private experiences and exclusive access designed specifically for our group. Best of all, you and your fellow travelers will be guided by one of the Endowment’s favorite people, the inestimable Alasdair Clayre of The Grand Tour. You won’t want to miss this wonderful trip!

The Southern Bastions: Dubrovnik, Montenegro & Korčula

Monday, October 12 Dubrovnik

Dobrodošli!

Arrival at Dubrovnik Ruđer Bošković Airport (DBV). Transfer by private motorcoach to Dubrovnik and check in to the 5-Star Excelsior Hotel perched above the Adriatic. Our introduction to the Baltics begins with an expertly curated walking tour through the limestone streets of Dubrovnik's Old City, the "Pearl of the Adriatic," where 16th-century walls guard a maritime republic that once rivaled Venice. We'll enjoy a Welcome Reception followed by an exclusive Welcome Dinner overlooking the city and the Adriatic.

Tuesday, October 13 Dubrovnik

The odyssey continues today as we travel to Montenegro and the Bay of Kotor (Boka), unique for its dramatic, fjord-like landscape—the only one of its kind in the Mediterranean—and its exceptionally well-preserved medieval heritage. A boat whisks us to "Our Lady of the Rocks," a picturesque, man-made islet in the Bay of Kotor, topped by a 17th-century blue-domed church that was built by local sailors who, according to legend, deposited a rock for every successful voyage. Afterward, we'll enjoy lunch in the countryside, prepared especially for the group, before heading back to Dubrovnik.

Wednesday, October 14 Dubrovnik

Today's adventure takes us to the emerald island of Korčula, a "mini-fortress" of red-tiled roofs famously rumored to be the birthplace of Marco Polo. Along the way we'll enjoy an exclusive oyster tasting fresh from the sea with a local fisherman. Enjoy some free time in Korčula before boarding the ferry back to the coast for a visit to the award-winning winery, Vina Grgić, sister of Grgich Hills Estate in Napa, to sample its fine wines alongside a picnic lunch on the Peljesac Peninsula.

Cultural Confluence: Mostar, Split & Hvar

Thursday, October 15 Split

We begin our journey north as we cross the border into Bosnia and Herzegovina and enter Mostar, a city defined by the Stari Most (old bridge), a 16th-century Ottoman masterpiece that arches gracefully over the emerald Neretva River, connecting the city's Christian and Muslim quarters. A UNESCO World Heritage site and a mesmerizing tapestry of Ottoman architecture, narrow cobblestone bazaars and traditional stone houses echo Mostar's complex role as a bridge between East and West.

Lunch at a fine restaurant overlooking the Stari Most. We'll arrive in Split and check in to the 5-star Palazzo President in a prime location in the heart of the city.

Friday, October 16 Split

Step back 1,700 years into the living heart of the Roman Empire with a private tour through Diocletian's Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site that remains the vibrant center of modern-day Split. Our walk traces the historical layers of a palace that has never stopped being a home, capturing the enduring "crossroads" of Adriatic life. We'll enjoy a Mediterranean lunch today outside of the city at an excellent "oleo-tourism" farm before visiting tiny Trogir, another designated UNESCO World Heritage site, often called a city museum with its Cathedral of St. Lawrence, a Romanesque-Gothic masterpiece featuring the intricately carved Radovan's Portal from 1240, and Kamerlengo Fortress, the 15th-century Venetian stronghold that still guards the sun-drenched waterfront promenade.

Saturday, October 17 Split

Today we board a local ferry and travel to the island of Hvar, the "sunniest spot in the Adriatic" and a beautiful mix of Venetian architecture and Mediterranean nature. Famous for its lavender-scented hills and olive groves, the island features the Stari Grad Plain—a UNESCO World Heritage site where the original Greek farming layout has remained unchanged for more than 2,400 years. Lunch is prepared at a local working farm that cultivates vines, olives, lavender and many other vegetables in ancient traditions.

Northern Elegance: Plitvice & Opatija

Sunday, October 18 Opatija

Turning inland we depart Split and continue our journey on to Opatija via Plitvice Lakes National Park, a natural wonderland of 16 turquoise lakes and waterfalls. Enjoy lunch at a restaurant honoring the Peka tradition or cooking "under the bell," which dates back thousands of years in Dalmatia. After lunch we continue along the northern coast to Opatija, the "Austrian Riviera." Defined by its Belle Époque villas and the scenic Lungomare promenade, it is here that aristocratic sophistication meets the sea. Check in to the 5-Star Hotel Milenij, a magnificent Habsburg-era villa perched above the sparkling Adriatic and surrounded by parks.

Monday, October 19 Opatija

We travel today to visit the romantic port of Rovinj, with its pastel-colored Venetian facades, narrow, winding cobblestone streets and artistic spirit that has flourished for centuries. Once an island, this "gem of the Adriatic" is crowned by the Baroque Church of St. Euphemia with its copper spire overlooking the harbor filled with traditional fishing boats. After lunch with a modern twist on traditional Istrian cuisine, we'll spend the afternoon in Pula—a living museum of Roman antiquity, dominated by the Pula Arena, one of the world's six largest and best-preserved Roman amphitheaters. Pula, a city layered with history, is considered the gateway to Istria, where Roman ruins stand alongside bustling shipyards and charming plazas, perfectly capturing the region's transition from an imperial past to a spirited modern identity.

Ljubljana

Tuesday, October 20 Opatija

Today, we begin in tiny Motovun, a medieval gem, in the heart of inland Istria. Encircled by robust 13th-century Venetian walls, this “town in the hills” is famous for its narrow cobblestone streets, Gothic architecture and breathtaking 360-degree views of the surrounding vineyards and forests. Motovun offers a mystical, old-world charm that feels like a fairytale come to life and is also renowned as the truffle capital of the region. Here, we’ll experience the authentic thrill of truffle hunting with expert guides and trained dogs in the legendary Motovun Forest. After our adventure, we’ll enjoy a lunch made of delicious truffle-inspired delicacies

Wednesday, October 21

The last ascent on our journey leads us into one of Europe’s most sustainable and charming capitals, where Alpine freshness meets Mediterranean warmth in Ljubljana, Slovenia. Often described as a “living drawing room,” the city’s heart is a car-free sanctuary of Baroque architecture and lively riverside cafés. We’ll ascend by funicular to Ljubljana Castle for panoramic views of the Julian Alps, a fitting finale that overlooks the historical “crossroads” where our odyssey began.

We end our travels in Zagreb, Croatia’s vibrant capital, a city of two distinct halves—the medieval Upper Town (Gornji Grad) and the grand, 19th-century Lower Town (Donji Grad). Check in to the 5-Star Esplanade Zagreb Hotel in the Donji Grad, opened in 1925 as a stopover for the Orient Express. Our gala Farewell Dinner tonight is at the hotel where we’ll toast to our time together in the crossroads of the Adriatic. Živjeli!
